Shopping & On Your own

Come check out ALL of the retail stores! So much to see, smell, eat and purchase. Too many to list!!!!!!

History: Mark Coblentz, President, Walnut Creek Cheese & Market and Walnut Creek Foods.

It all started with a pickup truck and a slide-in refrigerated box in April 1977. I was 21 years old with more spunk than sense. A cousin told me about an opportunity where a local fellow had a cheese route for sale. I struck a deal that put me in business. Even though I didn't have the benefit of education—or even experience—behind me, I did have a significant edge. That edge was that my parents had raised me with Christian values. My parents are conservative Amish Mennonite, and they had taught me to go the extra mile. They also taught me the importance of honesty. Honesty and integrity have always been hallmarks of our company. Come see what is in our marketplace!

2:15 pm Depart

2:30 pm Arrive Walnut Creek Marketplace

Shopping & On Your Own

Walnut Creek Marketplace is 70,000 sq.ft of indoor shopping, one level climate controlled, bus and group friendly.

The Marketplace is handicap accessible. There is plenty of shopping and food! Some of the shops include : antiques, rugs clothing, plant, kitchen accessories. Come see how much more you can find!!!!

For food, there is both indoor & Outdoor seating. There is a cafe/restaurant, bakery, Auntie Anne's Pretzels, roasted nuts, ice cream, popcorn & pork rinds and much more for your dining pleasure. Eat where the locals eat! Mudd Valley Café & Creamery is located inside of Walnut Creek Cheese & Market at our Walnut Creek location and is a full-service eatery serving brunch, lunch, desserts, ice cream, and more! With seating on our upper level for over 300 people – we have more than enough room for you and your friends to enjoy lunch with us.
